

ANDRÉ CARSON
UNITED STATES CONGRESS

July 22, 2017

Greetings friends:

It is my privilege to welcome each of you to the Dunham House Educational Foundation Scholarship Ceremony. Our nation's 44th president, Barack Obama, can trace his ancestral lineage to this famous Hoosier historical site.

It is my honor to congratulate each of the winners of this year's scholarships. The Dunham House provides $4,500 in financial assistance to Indiana students who study in the field of history. In addition, The Dunham House supports humanitarian organizations across the state. James Baldwin once said, "Know from whence you came. If you know whence you came, there are absolutely no limitations to where you can go." I encourage the winners of this year's scholarships to keep this quote in mind as you move forward with your education.

On behalf of the 7th Congressional District of Indiana, I thank the Dunham House for its tireless efforts in preserving this monument for our future generations and for its unwavering support to our entire community.

Sincerely,
